Current Books Slide The works of witnesses collected read the works collected by Watchman Nee does not need to have elegant cups and equipment to create a high quality video transmission. With the correct set of tools, any church, regardless of its technical experience, can create a quality production of a religious service. All the needs of your church is an intelligent telism and some devices that cost less than $ 100 in total. In the electronic book, we describe an economic and easy to use configuration. We also show you where you can broadcast live for free and how to do it. 6. Record the services of the Church and make them on request many churches overlook this easy step, losing the opportunity not only to keep their existing members committed, but also of connecting with new or potential members. Having YouTube links on your church's website promotes one of the most valuable assets of your church, the spiritual guide. People interested in their church can look at the past sermons à € à € and see the value you will receive. It will be more likely to try their church and become members. One of the reasons why so many churches overlook this step is because the idea of recording and publishing videos of services sounds difficult or expensive. It is not. In addition to the video team, an intelligent phono and some accessories, it is free. And establishing a record is simple. In the electronic book, we will share all the tools that you need together with the guideline on how to configure a recording. 7. exceed the challenges of recording and transmission with free tools to your disposition, live transmission and recording is very easy, but as anything, it is needed practical. Your members will agree with that. There is a montion of technical ones that your church can use that you will not cost anything extra and will not take much of the personnel or volunteers of your church. Nine. Give it to be very easy and automatic although assistance and membership is low for churches throughout the country, parishioners are still connected to their ecclesiastical missions. Philanthropy Daily found that 62% of religious households donate charity compared to 46% of non -affiliated households, a clear indication that they are inspired to give. The most common cause of the caia in the donations that many churches have seen and continue to see is that the members simply forget, and with the parishioners who attend less frequently than in previous years, that means that their usual donation It does not reach the church so often. In our electronic book, we describe the tools that 25,000 churches have used to increase donation and automate the donation process. Around the time I got to Christ, he found several books of Watchman Nee registered of a family member who had died many years before: sitting down, walking, walking, standing out; The normal Christian life; Do not love the world; and changed to his similarity. As soon as Leà Sit, Walk, stand, was hooked. I would discover that their other books were worth only a few dollars each in a used library simple teaching. He was the first Christian author with whom I got hooked. Fortunately, his books are more important to find that never. They have been in digital format for many years, and their main editor, Living Stream Ministry, has put their books available for free reading, without conditions.
